<< Body text (Franklin Gothic Book 9, single spaced, bold headings, justified body text). Text of the article should be divided into appropriate headings. Main headings should be written in capitals. Subheadings should appear as italic with the text running on. Whole numbers one to ten should be spelled out and number 11 onwards given in numerals. Full binomial names should be given on first occasion an organism is mentioned, and abbreviated thereafter, except at the beginning of a sentence e.g. Wadi racer (Platyceps rhodorachus). Common names of organisms should have an initial capital letter: e.g. Sand gazelle, Sand fox etc. Be consistent. >>

Introduction

Our article summarises the management of cheetahs (Acinonyx jubatus) in captivity in the Middle East.....
